THE UNION AWARDS 2020

NOMINATE NOW

The Union Awards are an important and valued way to recognise the work being conducted by those dedicated to lung health around the world, honouring contributions from both young researchers and lifetime achievers.

The awards will be presented at the 51st Union World Conference on Lung Health in Seville, Spain.

Depending on the award, the winners may receive a cash prize and/or a full fellowship/complimentary registration to attend the Union World Conference.

MAKE YOUR NOMINATION BEFORE 31 MARCH awards.theunion.org
THE UNION AWARDS 2020

THE UNION YOUNG INVESTIGATOR PRIZE
Acknowledges a young researcher for work in lung health published in the past five years.

THE UNION SCIENTIFIC PRIZE
Acknowledges researchers at any stage of their career for work in lung health published in the past five years.

THE KAREL STYBLO PUBLIC HEALTH PRIZE
Acknowledges a health worker or a community organisation for contributions to tuberculosis control over a period of 10 years or more.

THE STEPHEN LAWN TB-HIV RESEARCH LEADERSHIP PRIZE
Acknowledges young researchers conducting promising work focused on reducing the disease burden of TB and HIV/AIDS in Africa.

THE PRINCESS CHICHIBU GLOBAL MEMORIAL TB AWARD
Recognises outstanding contributions to global TB control. To be awarded by the Japan Anti-Tuberculosis Association (JATA) in 2021.

THE UNION MEDAL (For members only)
Awarded to members who have made an outstanding contribution to the control of tuberculosis or lung health by their scientific work and/or actions in the field.

HONORARY MEMBER (For members only)
Granted to a person who has become distinguished through active participation in The Union’s activities and the fulfilment of its goals.

FOR MORE INFORMATION VISIT THEUNION.ORG