The Comité Nacional de Lucha Contra la Tuberculosis (CNLT) has been producing Christmas seals since 1943 – making this year the 60th anniversary of this successful campaign. In 2012 CNLT sold 2 million seals raising funds for the training programmes of the national campaign against TB. Mexico’s seals are so popular that CNLT maintains a website for collectors at www.tbsealsmexico.org.